Maple Flakes

At Prestige, we don't just make maple syrup.
We transform a living resource into a lasting pleasure.

Sourced from our Canadian forests, our syrup is harvested with the utmost respect for the nature that gives it to us, season after season.

Our Maple Flakes are obtained through a gentle freeze-drying process that transforms pure maple syrup into delicate, crunchy crystals. These unique flakes elevate cocktails, meats, vegetables, and desserts. They can be sprinkled as a finishing touch on sweet creations, or incorporated into savory recipes like spice rubs and coatings.

Crafted here in Canada, our products are shared around the world, bringing the joyful and refined taste of maple to every corner of the globe.
